FOREWORD

As the College proceeds past another milestone in its course, we pause briefly to evaluate the journey of yesterday. Indeed mindful of the heritage instituted by pioneers of faith, we are confident that our Lord Jesus Christ was the veritable founder of this work devoted to His service. Therefore, our theme, though manifold, is centered on the infinitely dimensional declaration, "I am the Alpha and Omega."

It supersedes all the letters of any alphabet to encompass the Living Word, because Christ is "All and in all". It is our conviction that He was the Alpha in our College; and it is our earnest desire that we will never see its end, but rather, that we should behold our Saviour in its consummation. It is not ours to conjure frothy enthusiasm nor to build on the façade of human structure. It is ours only to run with endurance in full assurance of faith looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

We believe in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, verbally inspired, the all-significant rule of faith and practice.

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the virgin birth, the sinless perfection, the bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven of Jesus Christ, and in His present life there for us as High Priest and Advocate.

We believe man was created in the image of God, that he disobeyed God, and thereby incurred spiritual death, which is separation from God, and also physical death as a consequence; and that all the Adamic race are born in sin and are sinners by nature and practice.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins as a vicarious, substitutionary sacrifice, and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.

We believe in the personal, premillennial and imminent return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born of the Holy Spirit, and thereby become children of God.

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

We believe the Church is an elect company of believers baptized by the Holy Spirit into one body; its mission is to witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations; it will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air ere He appears to set up his kingdom.

We believe the grace of God to be sufficient for the maintenance of a godly walk, and that Christ and not the law is the believer's rule of life.

DEDICATION

Genuine Christian success is not marked by complacent containment of previous achievement, but by confident advance under the banner of Jesus Christ. Although our Lord remains unchangeable, His standard bearers give way to others in the marathon of service. Throughout the history of our College, God has seen fit to provide man with vision and abandonment to the cause of Christ to meet the need of the hour. Because the exemplary lives of these men form for us an encompassing cloud of witnesses to the faithfulness of God, we dedicate the 1963 Milestone to the Trustees, past and present; and we dedicate ourselves to join them in the marathon of service, looking to Jesus as the Founder and Future of our faith.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

Paul wrote to his spiritual son Timothy, and admonished him to engage in a very simple approach to the hearts of men, "Preach the Word." The only antidote for the readily apparent confusion that engulfs the intellectual religious and economic areas of this world is the eternal unchanging Word of God.

Modern education has added nothing to the solution of this deplorable state but rather, in a large measure, has become a tool controlled by Satan to add further to the already profound blindness of men. We have taught the nations to read only to have this advance exploited by false ideologies. In the market of learning the Bible has been supplanted by man's wisdom. In the labyrinth of religions the inspired record is perverted to satisfy the ambitions and visions of unbelieving false priests.

It is with Paul's statement in mind that your training at the Washington Bible College has been planned. Your education was not intended to prepare you to wage combat in the intellectual arena. Although you may have gained great heights intellectually, you have been warned that "We wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God. . . ."

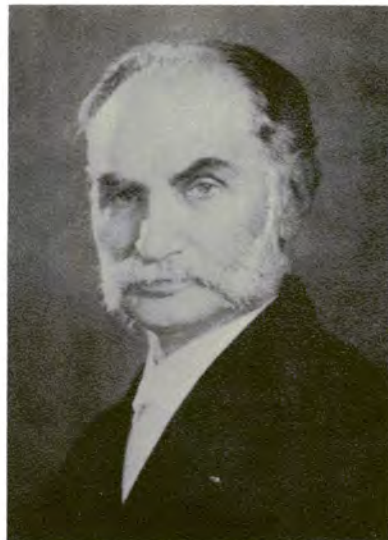

God is still encouraging us to depend on His sword, the Word of God. Great will be the temptation when the battle rages to return to the flesh—waste neither time nor resources on anything else. Trust the Word. Again with Paul we say, "PREACH THE WORD."

Yours in His service,
G. A. Miles

HISTORY

E. W. Collamore

Dr. A. R. Kuldell

Rev. C. W. Oyer

EARLY BEGINNINGS

- 1902—Mrs. Rice Steele starts classes in homes and churches.
- 1905—Mrs. Steele's classes move to the YMCA.
- 1917—Mr. E. W. Collamore, a government worker and member of Wallace Memorial United Presbyterian Church, organizes the Cottage Bible Institute and develops the "Home Bible Study Courses." Emblem chosen is entitled "The Bible in the Heart—the Heart of Service." Hundreds enroll in the Home Bible Study.
- 1919—Classes originally started by Mrs. Steele now move from YMCA to the home of W. H. H. Shelley for about four years.
- 1921—The Cottage Bible Institute is incorporated under the name American Home Bible Institute and expands its ministry with the aid of Miss Lena Lobaugh, Miss Mary Hervey, Miss Ethel Vance and Miss Effie Collamore. Mr. Collamore's pastor, the Dr. C. E. Hawthorne being of great encouragement and assistance.
- 1924—Dr. A. R. Kuldell, a specialist in Jewish missions, organizes the classes meeting in the Shelley home into the Bible Institute of Washington in association with Dr. M. E. Miller, Rev. S. L. Brumbaugh, and Irwin Linton.
- 1925—Rev. C. W. Oyer comes from Fort Wayne Bible Institute to become superintendent of the Bible Institute of Washington.
- 1930—Rev. Oyer opens the Washington School of the Bible at the Open Door Church attracting many government workers and sponsoring numerous prophetic conferences.

UNION

1938—The Washington School of the Bible and the American Home Bible Institute effect complete union in September under the name of WASHINGTON BIBLE INSTITUTE. Mr. George A. Miles is appointed President. The Prayer Steward Department is carried over from the American Home Bible Institute and placed under the oversight of Rev. Edward Stelling.

1939—The Bible Institute of Washington joins classes with the Washington Bible Institute.

1940—The union of the Bible schools is finalized and classes are held in the Open Door Church.

GROWTH

- 1940—First full-time administrator, Mr. Glenn W. Wagner, is elected President. He institutes youth rallies, radio broadcast, and boat cruises to evangelize youth.
- 1945—Mr. Glenn W. Wagner resigns to work with the Pocket Testament League and Mr. George A. Miles, structural engineer with the government and faculty member, becomes President.
- 1946—Buildings on Rhode Island Avenue are purchased for $80,000. A three-year Bible institute program is begun consisting of 15 students and local pastors as the faculty with classes meeting at night.
- 1947—Classes are now held in the day time with first full-time faculty including Miss LaDelle Dawson, Mr. Willis E. Bishop and Rev. John Stannard.
- 1949—The first three-year Institute class is graduated.
- 1952—Third building on Rhode Island Avenue is procured for $30,000.
- 1953—Dr. Karl E. Keefer, Jr., joins the faculty as the first full-time Academic Dean.
- 1954—The District of Columbia Board of Education licenses the Institute to grant the Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Education degree.
- 1956—The name is changed to the Washington Bible College, and the College receives Associate membership in the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges.
- 1958—A three-year graduate course is inaugurated and called the Capital Bible Seminary.
- 1961—The College obtains a building in the rear of the campus for a new library and offices. In this same year the Board of Education of the District of Columbia authorizes the College to grant the Bachelor of Divinity degree.
- 1962—Dr. Raymond Saxe becomes the first full-time Dean of the Seminary. On October 24 the College is admitted to full membership in the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges.
- 1963—Looking unto Jesus the author and consummator.

DYNAMIC IN DIMENSION

When men live their lives on their own, life tends to be either static or spasmodic. Believers are Christ's very own! His dynamic works in us, striking out in four dimensions—breadth, length, depth, and height (Eph. 3:18).

Dynamic foundation. Because the full force of divine dynamic cannot operate from a limited base, Christ, Himself, must provide the broad foundation from which we may launch a major offensive.

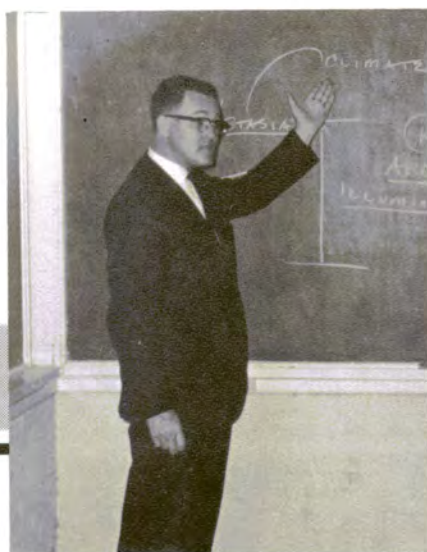

Dynamic future. Believers live in the dynamic of an endless life. Such people must take a long view of everything they do in connection with the will of God preventing the ravages of impetuosity and instability. A long view focuses clearly and provides balance over the distance of the dimension.

Dynamic fountainhead. Constant replenishment from the depths of God's reservoir of grace brings fresh satisfaction and sufficiency for every demand of the spiritual life.

Dynamic fidelity. In the heights of the heavenlies with Christ all things are seen anticipatively in their perfection. From this vantage point issues a qualitative fidelity in the tone, touch, and tempo of our service.

Rejoice, O Christian, that your life in Christ is not superficial, but has all four dimensions with a dynamic flow unto effective production.

The Capital Bible Seminary was founded in 1958 in direct response to the need for a thoroughly fundamental Bible Seminary in the Nation's Capital.

The Seminary incorporates several distinctives which distinguished it in this area of Biblical education. Among these are: it believes the Bible College graduate is adequately prepared to undertake seminary training without additional preparation; it offers advanced Bible training for the Bible College graduate and avoids the duplication of undergraduate study; it affirms the dispensational theological approach to the Word of God; it provides a thoroughly Biblical education.

The Capital Bible Seminary is approved by the Board of Education of the District of Columbia to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon its graduates. Upon the completion of three years of concentrated study, the student is worthy of this high honor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council functions to synchronize the needs of the students with the objectives of the faculty for promoting the general welfare of the College. This year the Council sponsored nearly everything from parties and banquets to volleyball and tract distribution. In addition to co-ordinating social events and enacting legislation, the Council through the office of the student chaplain conducted weekly prayer meetings, provided morning devotions, and offered prayer for each of the students in chapel. Under the able leadership of Charles Hansew the Council performed well the ministry of making the Lord pre-eminent in all phases of College life.

The Foreign Missions Fellowship is a charter member of the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. FMF brings pertinent information and inspiration by means of guest missionaries, an expansive current events bulletin board, and distribution of mission literature. Perhaps the most effective stimulus to a world vision is the prayer band; therefore, FMF sponsors six bands wherein the call of God to a specific field of service may be facilitated through faithful prayer and correspondence.

STUDENT SLANT

Arthur Farstad, Editor

As the name would indicate, the Student Slant is both slanted to the interests of the student body and presents the student's angle of college life as seen through student editorials, interviews, articles, cartoons, and fiction shorts. In its third year of publication, the monthly Slant seeks to develop writing talent among the students and at the same time add a little thought provoking and sometimes humorous insight into the family life of the College. Social and athletic events are recorded in true campus tradition giving a more permanent account to the extra-curricular highlights of the year. Since this is a day of mass communications, and especially of renewed interest in Christian literature, it is felt that the experience gained in producing the Slant may some day prove a worthwhile background for a more extensive writing ministry.

STUDENT WIVES

At its monthly meeting the Student Wives' Club has a variety of interesting programs, speakers, and activities which are intended to make the students' wives feel more an integral part of college life and to give opportunity for Christian fellowship. Progressive suppers, husband and wife gatherings, and special projects have been the source of much of this year's blessings. Activities are climaxed at the Club's own graduation exercises when wives of graduating seniors receive their P.H.T.'s (Putting Hubby Through).

PRAYER STEWARDS

Rev. Edward Stelling celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary as Prayer Steward Secretary having written a multitude of prayer letters encouraging intercessory warriors and elucidating the Biblical principles of prayer. A few of these remarkable letters have been compiled in pamphlet form and distributed by the College.

Prayer Stewards are Christians who pledge to observe the weekly cycle of suggested requests in the Prayer Steward Department's calendar. Those signing pledges receive monthly letters and are encouraged to attend the monthly prayer meetings if possible.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Mrs. June Whipple, President

The Women's Auxiliary is an organization of women from all walks of life who unite their interest in WBC to minister to a variety of needs. Qualifications for membership are simple—one must be a woman, a Christian, and have conviction concerning the value of Bible education. The Auxiliary is administered by six elected officers and an advisory committee of three life-time members. It performs an inestimable service for the College by supplying scores of practical needs and offering encouragement and intercession on behalf of students and College personnel. In glowing gratitude we express our thanks for their faithful services and interest.

Because the College is located in the center of the city there are innumerable opportunities for Christian service. Students may hold mission meetings, visit hospitals, work in penal institutions, do child evangelism, minister in churches, organize gospel teams, etc. Everyone must engage in some ministry each semester under the supervision of the Christian Service Department. What a joy it is to observe the truths of the Word learned in the classroom bearing fruit unto eternal life and transformed lives.

MUSIC

A ministry of music has often proven effective in leading souls to Christ or in giving spiritual refreshment to the saints. With this in view, the Music Department has established several ways of extending its musical testimony. The male quartet, known as the Capital-Aires, and the girls' trio, called the Capital-Ettes minister in local churches during the academic year and travel extensively during the summer. The choir has a vital ministry through its special presentations during the Christmas season and on its spring tour. Fine instruction in voice, piano, and organ is provided for any who wish to pursue this type of service.

THE TIDINGS HOUR

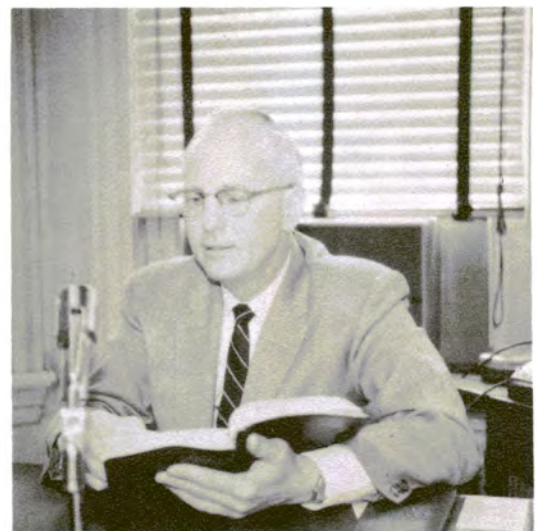

The Tidings Hour affords the Washington Bible College another opportunity for presenting the Gospel. This weekly radio ministry is heard each Sunday across the Metropolitan Washington area over station WFAX.

Excellent, well-qualified speakers from the faculty of both the Seminary and the College conduct three or four-week systematic studies on the Bible which are a means of genuine spiritual strength and growth to Christians as well as a means of reaching the unsaved with the message of salvation.

The Tidings Hour is under the direction of President George Miles. The Capital-Aires, Capital-Ettes and College Choir provide a fine assortment of music glorifying God and reaching souls for Christ.

*Personal help from Prof.

Evening School and Extension Classes are taught by College faculty, pastors, and qualified laymen, providing Christians from all walks of life with an opportunity to study God's Word and learn practical techniques of evangelism, education, and music. This type of ministry holds a special interest to those associated with WBC because it was foremost in the accomplishments of the early years.

WABANNA ADVANCE

*Mirror, mirror on the wall,
Who's got the least cavities of us all?*

President versus president

To instill unity and sense of purpose the College began the academic year with a week-end advance on the Wabanna Bible Conference grounds. The emphasis of the messages was on diligence and approval in terms of conditioning for effectual service. The outstanding thrill came from the vibrant testimonies of summer missionaries and optimistic incoming freshmen. Musical programs and numerous recreational periods made the conference most enjoyable, and many friends were made and tall tales told as folks gathered at the snack shack.

YOUTH CONFERENCE

The theme of the Fourteenth Annual Youth Conference was "Goals that Satisfy." Young People were confronted with the fact that genuine satisfaction comes only from aggressive obedience to Jesus Christ; therefore, it is essential to become acquainted with God's will as revealed in His Word.

Despite inclement weather the opening rally was most successful. Throughout the conference there were special speakers, musical entertainment, and sample classroom situations. Conferees were housed in a fine hotel and attended meetings in a local church.

MISSIONS CONFERENCE

What's the possibility for summer ministries?

WBC observed its first Alumni Missionary Conference with six alumni speakers representing a composite of missionary development and activity. WBC's purpose of existence was evident in the theme "That the World might Believe in Christ". The sensational was obviously absent, but a stirring spiritual atmosphere pervaded the entire student body like never before in recent years.

PROFESSOR BISHOP VISITS

the HOLY LAND

During the recent summer Professor Willis Bishop enrolled in New York University's course, "The Land and the Bible", which included three weeks of lectures in Israel and two weeks of guided tours, both of which dealt with ancient and modern Israel. Lectures were given in conjunction with the Hebrew University and the Israeli State Department. Professor Bishop spent two weeks on his own touring nearly all Biblically related sites in Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, and Egypt. Holland, Greece, and Rome were also briefly visited. The trip was described as richly rewarding both technically and experientially.

FOUNDERS WEEK

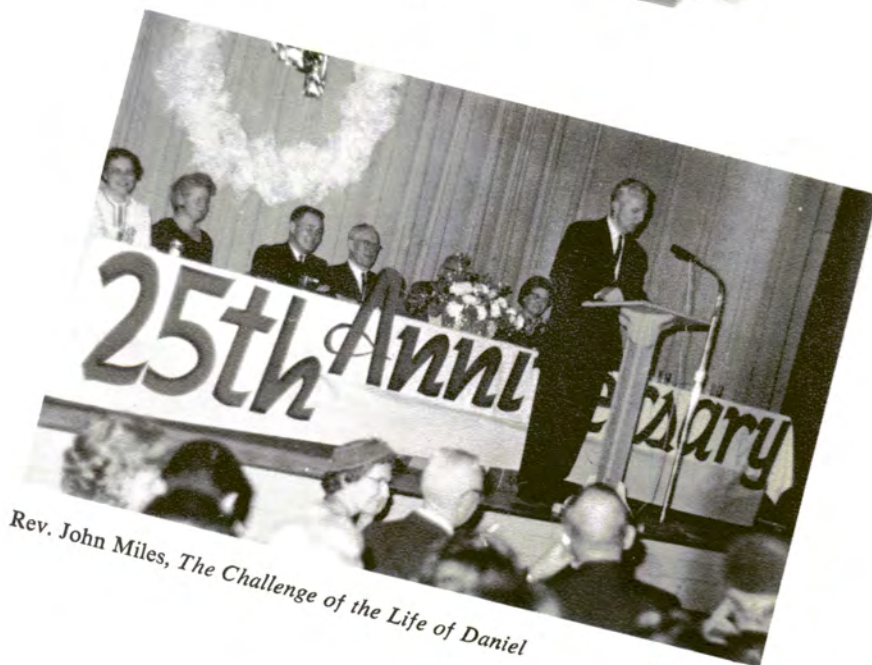

No more appropriate way of commemorating the 25th Anniversary of WBC could be found than having a week of Christian-life emphasis. Therefore, Rev. John Miles, President of the Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music was invited to challenge student and faculty alike during the Founders Week, and at the Founders Banquet. Everyone was stirred and warmed by the clear, practical exposition of Biblical principles, and the banquet itself was in every aspect an unprecedented success. Special music was supplied throughout the week by the College music department. Response from the alumni during the anniversary observance was encouraging.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Miss Eileen Limburg, Conference Director

Miss Marjorie Ford, Sunday School Consultant

The theme of the two-day Christian Education Conference was "Apt to Teach", and the main speaker was Miss Marjorie Ford, Sunday School Consultant and missionary appointee. The messages, discussions, and workshops dealt with evangelizing, educating, and equipping all age groups for a fruitful life especially in the local church. The challenge was to put zest in Christian Education and make the Word of God pulsate and give direction to the average Christian.

CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Among our chapel speakers this year have been missionaries, local pastors, Bible teachers, seminary students, and other Christian workers. These servants of the Lord have presented stirring accounts of world missions, opened precious insights into Biblical doctrine, and expressed timely exhortations. We have also benefited immensely from weeks of special emphasis and Bible lectures from our own faculty.

Despite hectic schedules nearly everyone finds opportunity for recreation. Ping pong remains the unchallenged favorite of students and faculty, however, despite many limitations enthusiasm for basketball has increased steadily. Recently weight lifting has appealed to a few fellows interested in maintaining healthy constitutions. The various park and recreational facilities of the city are profitably utilized by occasional outings and picnics.

Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life which the Son of Man shall give unto you; for him hath God the Father sealed.

*What shall we do that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them,
This is the work of God, that ye believe on Him whom He hath sent.*
